THE ORIGINS OF THIS CREATION

A journey to Asia, the discovery of Sichuan pepper and an intuition: what if this exceptional spice met the world of wine? From this encounter was born a singular creation, at the crossroads of two terroirs and two cultures.

Grape and pepper reveal themselves as natural accomplices. Like wine, pepper expresses a place, a climate and a know-how.

Vol Libre : explore, break, surprise.
Where the richness of the grape dialogues with the depth of the spice.
